The secret is out of the box! We want life to be an easy path, but it is not. Life is difficult; it is also challenging and exciting adventure, a treasured gift. How do we move past the wounds of the past that we all face? Words make worlds, thoughts create our perspective. consciousness and perspective are everything.

Every day, in every way, you choose to be either a victor or a victim of life.

Victors choose the hard road, the path of personal power and positive change. They chose to take the road less traveled.

A road of life by design, a path that reflects their values and their vision. Victims choose the easier path and in so doing become prisoners of a life spent by default. Victors live life with passion and purpose, victims just spend their life on autopilot, on a journey of default in which they dance to another man's drummer and never find their true path. Victims and victors come in all sizes, shapes, economic and social classes. If you look closely you will see them in every station of life. If you look closely, you will see that both under-achievers and over-achievers are victims of the same wound. They both seek validation, in different ways. But, the only true validation we have comes from inside out. It is the validation and internal power we feel and live when we engage our truest faith, hope, courage, integrity and humanity. It is the empowerment we feel when we recognize that we each have an important role to play, no matter how large or small in a greater purpose.

If you are victor reach out this week and inspire a colleague, friend or loved one to seize the day with passion and purpose. If you are a victim, do not despair. Carpe diem. You can change your thoughts, your beliefs, your habits to reflect your personal power and your ability to live life by design. The first step starts with awareness and appreciation. Each day, each moment holds the seed of possibility for positive change and growth. What is your drummer? What is your design? What dreams and values do you hold dear to your heart that you need to express? Are we impelled and propelled forward by values that speak to our true purpose, or by ego that will hold us in the embrace of false security and meaningless victories?

It is never too late to embrace self-love and self-worth from inside out! You can choose to walk the hero's journey to the destination of our choice, to a life well spent. The choice is now. If you hear the call, take one small step today to move past fear, past habitual excuses, past negative self talk and self-criticism that holds you back. Tomorrow take another step towards a greater goal. Hear the call. Victory awaits you.
